

The Law and its Effect on Small Museums, Historic Houses and Historical Societies
13 November 2015
Mt. Kearsarge Indian Museum, host

Registration fee with light lunch and net-working break snacks included $30 for upwards to three representatives of each organization
$10 for students with academic identification

- 9:30-10:00 Registration
- 10:00-10:45 Panel I: The Role of the Attorney's General Office with Respect to Small Museums, Historic Houses and Historical Societies
 Thomas Donovan & Terry Knowles, Office of the Attorney General, New Hampshire
- 10:45 -11:00 Networking
- 11:00-11:45 Panel II: Understanding 990s and Other Required Forms
 Lorena Sinnamon, CPA, Santoro & Sinnamon Certified Public Accountants
- 11:45-12:45 Working Lunch: Time to discuss new ideas with new friends
- 1:00-1:45 Panel III: Estate Gifts to Small Museums, Historic Societies and Historic Houses: Information Directors Need to Know
 Amanda Nelson Esq., Artium Amore: Lawyers for the Arts
- 1:45-2:00 Networking
- 2:00-2:45 Panel IV: What the Director Needs to Know About Feathers
 Robert Rothe, Special Agent, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
 Nancy Jo Chabot, Curator, Mt. Kearsarge Indian Museum
- 2:45-3:00 Networking
- 3:00-3:45 Panel V: Copyright, Creative Commons and the Consequences of Social Media
 Dr. Catherine Bigley McGovern
 The Pitfalls of "Commissioning"
 Professor Peter J. McGovern
- 3:45 -4:00 Closing Remarks and Tour of the Collection

Register at mkim.director@tds.net
By Friday, November 6, 2015